Jet Plane, Airliner Collide Over Nevada

U.S. To Repeat Open-Skies Offer

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — The United States readied a new call in the U.N. Security Council today for the Eisenhower open-skies plan in answer to Soviet denunciation of American nuclear bomber operations in the Arctic.

U. S. Delegate Henry Cabot Lodge and Arkady Sobolev of the Soviet Union were slated to take the floor in the first round of debate late this afternoon.

A U. S. spokesman said Lodge would cite the American disarmament record in denying the Soviet charges and would renew Eisenhower's proposal for mutual U.S.-Soviet aerial inspection.

"We consider it to be an important speech," the spokesman said. "It will rely heavily on our record of trying to reach an agreement with the Russians on mutual inspection and disarmament."

The Soviet complaint calls for "urgent measures to put an end to flights by United States military aircraft armed with atomic and hydrogen bombs in the direction of the frontiers of the Soviet Union." Soviet sources indicated Sobolev would submit a resolution spelling out what urgent measures the Soviet Union wants the Council to take.

DELEGATES friendly to the United States predicted any strong anti-American resolution would poll only one positive vote — the Soviet Union's. But they conceded that the Soviets might get considerable propaganda mileage out of their charges that probably will occupy two or three Council sessions.

Observers expect Sobolev to carry the debate into such other issues as the Soviet suspension of nuclear bomb tests, the Soviet boycott on U.N. disarmament bodies and East-West exchanges over the proposed summit conference.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko made the latest charge Friday. He claimed that U. S. nuclear bombers had made provocative flights across the Arctic toward the Soviet Union.

He said a false radar alert could result in the dropping of a bomb and touch off an accidental war.

U. S. Defense Secretary Neil McElroy replied that the U. S. Air Force had perfected a foolproof system to prevent any unintended bomb strike against Russia.

Royal Ball Just About a Royal Bust

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)—Bachlor King Baudouin's first royal ball turned out to be more like a royal bust for the host. There were just too many people.

The 27-year-old monarch invited 11 princesses from all over Europe (some said he was hunting for a wife) but if he tried to get any of them off in a corner he probably would have been crowded out by some of his 6,000 guests.

The Belgian court hadn't given a ball for 24 years and in general the king has maintained a reserved distance between himself and his subjects during seven years on the throne.

He finally threw a party during the weekend to celebrate the opening of the 1958 World's Fair.

Decked out in the latest fashions, the guests stood on brocade chairs, shoved and pushed each other to get a look at Baudouin and charged after him when he went for a snack at the buffet. One young girl fainted, and some of the ladies' long gowns were stepped on and torn. The party finally broke up at 3 a. m.

Firemen Fight Grass Blaze

A grass fire raged along the right of way of the Pennsylvania Railroad for about 3 1/2 miles in Washington Twp. Saturday afternoon.

Fire Chief Talmer Wise said the fire probably was set by a railroad locomotive. He said the blaze started at the railroad crossing at East Ringgold-Southern Road and went east to Stoutsville.

Wise said Circleville firemen and two members of the local National Guard unit stopped the blaze. Two railroad crossing signs were burned, he stated.

The fire, which started about 1:50 p. m., lasted about three hours. Firemen fighting the grass blaze were Ray Anderson, Glen Jones, Martin Garner and Chief Wise.

Business Failures Rise

NEW YORK (AP) — March business failures surged 21 per cent above February to reach a post-war monthly high of 1,495, Dun & Bradstreet reported today.

Thug Terrorizes Cafe

CHICAGO (AP)—Some 100 customers in a Loop cafe were terrorized Sunday night when a gunman fired half a dozen wild shots before he was subdued. Police identified him as Carlos Padro, 25, and said he was drunk.

48 Persons Are Killed In Accident

46 Aboard United Air Line Ship, 2 Fighter Plane Fliers Lost

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP) — A huge airliner winging east in perfectly clear weather collided with a supersonic jet fighter-bomber high over the desert today, exploded and crashed. All 46 aboard the airliner were killed.

The jet was an F100F from nearby Nellis Air Force Base, a pilot training center. The craft's two occupants, on an instrument training mission, rode the craft to their deaths.

The collision was at 21,000 feet over a hilly desert area 15 miles southwest of here.

The jet came down three miles away from the airliner. The Air Force said the bodies of both airmen were in the wreckage.

Observers said there was a spurt of flame as the United Air Lines DC7 exploded. Then it went into a long death dive, trailing flames, black smoke and debris. The crippled airliner crashed like a bomb and continued burning.

The airliner had Civil Aeronautics Authority clearance to fly to Denver at 21,000 feet. It last reported in over Daggett, Calif., in the Mojave Desert west of Las Vegas. At that time it was at the assigned elevation.

The collision apparently was at about 21,000 feet.

The jet crashed on the opposite side of a hill from the airliner. The large plane carried 36 regular passengers, 5 company employees and a crew of 5.

It left Los Angeles at 10:30 a. m. EST, headed for New York via Denver, Kansas City and Washington. It was due over this desert gambling resort at 11:31 a. m. but was not to land here.

The CAA identified the crew as: Pilot, D. M. Ward; first officer, A. E. Sommers; flight engineer, C. E. Wood; and two stewardesses, T. M. Munsey and Y. M. Peterson. The CAA reported that the jets engine apparently cut out just before the collision.

A few minutes after 11:31 the big craft crashed in a hilly desert area about 15 miles from here.

Boy Finds That Someone Really Cared

DAYTON (AP) — Harold Watson learned a lot of things in his nine years of life.

He learned what it was to have no family and to be a ward in a county home like Shawen Acres here.

He learned what it was to have a tumor that necessitated surgery to remove his left eye.

And he learned what it was to be lonely.

Not much could be done about the first two conditions. But the third could be remedied. When Harold came home from the hospital after having his eye removed Jan. 16, newspapers printed stories asking people to write him.

He got more than a thousand cards and letters, including an autographed picture of the President of the United States and a letter of encouragement from the White House.

The knowledge that somebody cared came just in time for the boy. He died Sunday in Miami Valley Hospital. Doctors did not announce the cause of death.

Duel Challenge Trial Is Delayed

PHILADELPHIA, Miss. (AP)—Because of what he termed too much anger on both sides, Justice of the Peace Preston Collins today postponed Buford W. Posey's trial until May 5 for challenging a newspaper editor to a duel.

"I always thought dueling was an honorable Southern custom," Posey said. He said he handed a written challenge to Jack L. Tannehill, editor of the weekly Neshoba Democrat, April 3.

The duel challenge came after the Democrat printed a letter to the editor by former Circuit Clerk Burdette Richardson which was highly critical of Posey's political activities.

Man Sours on Catholics, Hurts 3 Nuns with Shotgun

TRENTON, N. J. (AP)—"I wanted to kill some nuns and priests."

That, police said, was the explanation offered by a 24-year-old father of two who burst into a convent Saturday night and wounded three nuns with blasts from a shotgun.

They said Louis Felipe Marrero signed a statement in which he admitted shooting the nuns and turning the area around St. Joachim's convent and school into a battleground as he fought off police and National Guardsmen for more than an hour.

The youth, who spoke of seeing visions of the Virgin Mary, finally slipped from the building and walked to the Delaware River 10 blocks away.

He got into a rowboat and crossed over to Pennsylvania, where he surrendered to a guard at the U. S. Steel Corp.

The handsome, wavy-haired youth sat in the Falls Township, Pa., police station and spoke calmly of his "visions."

"I have been having visions and signs from the Virgin Mary for about two years," he said. "I've never spoken to her. I've never seen her. Just the signs."

MARRERO, an $80-a-week press operator who lives only two blocks from St. Joachim's, was married in the church and was known in the neighborhood as a regular churchgoer. He has two children, aged 1 and 3.

Mercer County Prosecutor Stanley E. Rutkowski said Marrero would not fight extradition. He said the youth would be brought here and charged with atrocious assault with intent to kill.

The prosecutor quoted Marrero as saying he had sent a series of suggestions to such prominent Roman Catholics as Bishop Fulton J. Sheen and then became resentful when his suggestions were ignored.

Among other things, Marrero suggested a religious medal for spacemen in the U. S. armed forces and also sent Bishop Sheen his own version of the Bible.

Two nuns wounded seriously in the shooting spree were reported out of danger. They are Sister Lorenzina Sassani, 50, who was shot in the chest, and Sister Madeleine Fussile, 23, Bayonne, N. J., who suffered a shotgun blast in the thigh.

The third nun, Sister Angela Bulla, 24, Torrington, Conn., and Asbury Park, N. J., was wounded in the arm and was listed in good condition.

Twin Texas Sisters Are 100 Today

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — This was a double red letter day for two lively sisters who boast a possibly unique distinction — they're twin centenarians.

For Mrs. Inez Ruiz and Mrs. Inecita Barrera, it's both their 100th birthday and San Jacinto Day, the legal holiday marking the anniversary of the battle which won Texas independence.

The sprightly twins were born April 21, 1858, at San Diego, Tex., about 240 miles south of here. Their formulas for a long and healthy life?

Mrs. Barrera recommends relaxation and a daily diet of fried chicken, a glass of milk and bacon and eggs.

"I like to gamble with cards," she adds with a twinkle.

Mrs. Ruiz prescribes a daily bottle of beer with meals of meat and corn tortillas.

Mrs. Barrera, who made her living as a laundress after her husband died 28 years ago, lives with one of her four children.

Mrs. Ruiz, mother of 14 children, lives across town.

General Motors Plans Big Changes

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors has well underway a program which will give each of its car divisions a new car every year.

The program is based on a one-body shell concept for all GM cars, the paper said.

Automotive News said also GM reportedly has built three different proposed small cars. Best information, it adds, is that the one most likely to be produced is a rear-engine model, possibly with a unitized body and swing axles.

Only Two Plants Show Some Decline

By ROBERT K. HARROD
Editor The Herald

Business is good in Circleville. A poll of varied businesses, industries and financial institutions here today showed 1958 business to date is as good as last year, if not better, with one or two exceptions.

Circleville's four banks, good barometers of business activity, all reported today that deposits are up slightly over 1957 and collections are good.

Auto dealers said sales are "very good." Grocers report total volume is up a little from last year's figures. Two large local industries declared business is increasing and a third said it is expecting a record month next month.

Only two industries have reported any kind of let-down in general activity — General Electric, which will lay off 84 women employees May 5, and Lincoln Molded Plastics, which reported "uncertain" prospects.

One local real estate man is preparing a new 26-home subdivision in the north end, with homes to range in the $14,000-$15,000 class. Here are comments by some of Circleville's business leaders:

EMORY RIDLON, manager of the DuPont plant — "Business is continuing to increase. Orders are holding up well. It looks like it will maintain its present level. In fact, we have employed about 12-15 more people in the last two weeks."

L. D. VARBLE, manager of the Ralston Purina plant — "We had our best month since March 1954 last month. We expect to break all records in May. Generally, the company had its best month in history in March."

E. S. JANKURA, assistant treasurer, Lincoln Molded Plastics — "Our business is tied directly to the refrigerator business. Time to get out orders has been cut, giving us a more uncertain future. We had a small lay off and shut down last week, however, we expect to maintain a five-day week, at least in the near future."

D. J. CARPENTER, manager of the J. W. Eshelman & Sons, feed mill — "We are a little ahead of last year, so far, and we expect that to continue. I would say prospects are good."

J. C. VAN PELT, executive vice president of the Circleville Savings and Banking Co. — "We've not seen any serious setback. Collections are in good shape and deposits are up. Circleville has had no business catastrophe."

GEORGE FORESMAN, president of the First National Bank — "Business is very good. We have no complaints at all."

DURWARD DOWDEN, president of the Second National Bank — "Business is holding its own. Deposits are up a trifle. People are more cautious now, taking some of the punch from the economy, but I believe that makes for a more stable economy."

M. E. NOGGLE, executive vice president of the Third National Bank — "Business is booming. Deposits are in good shape. Labor is too well distributed here for a small letdown to hurt us in Circleville."

E. BONNER EZELL, president of the Circleville New Car Dealers Assn. — "The automobile business has been very good. We are very well off comparatively speaking. In fact the auto dealers are starting a 'You Auto Buy Now' campaign next month to help the national situation."

H. K. LANMAN, manager of the local Kroger Store — "Our business is ahead of last year."

R. C. KIFER, manager of the local A&P Store — "Our business is picking up, particularly in the last few weeks. Business is generally a fraction ahead of last year."

HAL DICKENSON, president of the Circleville Hardware Co. — "Business is good, better than last year."

R. P. BENNINGTON, owner of Benny's Restaurant — "Business is holding up well. It's as good as last year, even though I've noticed a small change due to the by-pass."

V. L. HAWKES, plant controller for the Container Corporation of America — "Things are very good right now."

DARRELL HATFIELD, real estate — "There is a lot of activity in the real estate business. Financing is getting easier."

Despite the fact that General Electric plans a lay off, E. G. Grigg, plant manager, said that the $2.5 million expansion program at the local plant will be started within the next 10 days.

A railway construction accident on a Route 23 over pass, three miles north of Chillicothe, halted truck travel on the highway for approximately 6 1/2 hours Saturday afternoon. All trucks were rerouted to Route 104.

The freak accident occurred between 2:45 and 3 p. m. Saturday according to Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company officials. A 60-ton railroad steam crane was completely demolished and one man was severely injured.

Two cranes were involved in the accident as they were attempting to set a 42-ton girder into place over Route 23. The girder was 75 feet long and was almost in place when a 75-ton diesel crane, setting on the ground, slacked up on its end of the girder and threw all the weight of the girder onto the crane up on the railroad.

The railway crane toppled and fell about 15 to 20 feet, pinning crane operator Howard Irwin, 28, of Covington, Ky. underneath. He had to be cut out with a torch.

Congress May Delay Action On Recession

Business Leader Calls for Slash In Taxes Quickly

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress may delay until June or even July any decision on reducing taxes to fight the recession.

This view was put forward today by influential members of the Democratic-controlled House, which originates tax legislation, in the midst of conflicting comments elsewhere that (a) that slump is leveling off or (b) that quick action by Congress is needed to boost the economy.

New support for a tax cut came in an economic study report by the Rockefeller Brothers fund recommending a series of public and private steps but calling a tax reduction the quickest way to get results.

The report itself made no specific recommendations as to timing or size but Nelson A. Rockefeller, fund president, said he personally favors a cut within a month and would go along with those economists who recommend a slash of up to $7 billion.

THE ATTITUDE of key members of Congress on taxes appears to have undergone some change in recent weeks. Earlier, the belief was prevalent that the decision would come in April or May—certainly not later than June 30, because many wartime excise tax rates are due to drop then unless extended.

But legislators considering the problem say these excises could be extended at present levels and changed later if excise cuts are decided upon.

The possibility of a tax cut was still very much in the picture.

Even if the economic slump proves to have slowed to a stop, some key members say a tax reduction still could be voted later to speed up recovery and get the economy off dead center earlier than if nature was allowed to take its course.

The Rockefeller report, prepared by a panel of businessmen and economists, stated:

"Of the antirecession measures available to the federal government, tax reduction can be effective in the shortest time. This panel believes that a tax cut would help overcome the current recession and expand employment."

The Rockefeller report left the amount up to the administration and Congress "in the light of the best information available when the tax cut is made."

FOR A LONG-range tax program, the panel recommended revision of the income tax structure with lower and more equitable rates.

The report listed possible "immediate antirecession measures" in six areas:

1. Private business, through aggressiveness and initiative in selling and developing new products.

2. Tax reduction: "Properly designed, it can have an immediate impact on both consumption and investment."

3. Public works — but "only useful projects" which can be quickly started and completed.

4. Easier monetary policy by the Federal Reserve system to make more money and credit available.

5. Added unemployment compensation to supplement state programs.

6. Top-level guidance: "There is need for an informal advisory committee to meet at the call of the President and under his direct leadership . . . to consider and advise on stabilization policy, either antirecession or anti-inflationary as appropriate."

Paratroopers Slated To Use Clinton Base

FT. CAMPBELL, Ky. (AP)—Paratroopers of the 101st Airborne Division are being moved from here to Clinton County Air Force Base at Wilmington, Ohio.

They will strike from there and five other bases Wednesday in a renewal of a simulated atomic war. The brief layoff is to repair weapons and equipment.

Military Fund Decision Urged

Solon Decries Delay In Ike's Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP)—Rep. Kilday (D-Tex.) said today the issue of giving the secretary of defense a bigger say in the use of military funds is before Congress now.

Kilday, a senior member of the House Armed Services Committee, said it is a dangerous mistake to think that President Eisenhower has postponed for a year this aspect of his defense reorganization plan — perhaps the most controversial part of it.

When Eisenhower sent Congress the draft legislation last Wednesday, he said the secretary of defense needs "greater flexibility in money matters." He added that no legislation was required, but that he had directed that the budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1959, should be prepared on a new basis.

This was generally interpreted as a move to delay the battle in Congress over the major fiscal aspect of defense reorganization until this budget comes up next January.

BUT KILDAY said there is one section in the Eisenhower draft bill which, if adopted by Congress in the meanwhile, could greatly strengthen the administration's position on military funds.

This section would delete the word "separately" from the following passage in the existing law: "The Departments of the Army, Navy and Air Force shall be separately administered by their respective secretaries under the direction, authority and control of the secretary of defense."

This issue and others in the reorganization plan may be argued Tuesday when the Armed Services Committee opens hearings on Eisenhower's proposal. Secretary of Defense McElroy is listed as lead-off witness.

Teamster Leader To Defy Probers

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Local Teamster leader Raymond P. Cohen swears he will stay silent except to cite the Fifth Amendment when he returns to Washington Tuesday to resume testifying before the Senate Rackets Committee.

He shouted this promise Sunday over the welcoming roar of 2,500 teamsters of Local 107 in a Philadelphia hall. Cohen is secretary-treasurer of the local. Over the hall doorway hung a dummy. It wore a sign reading: "John J. McClellan. We vote for who we want. This is not Little Rock."

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) is chairman of the Senate committee.

Twin Texas Sisters Are 100 Today

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — This was a double red letter day for two lively sisters who boast a possibly unique distinction — they're twin centenarians.

For Mrs. Inez Ruiz and Mrs. Inez Barrera, it's both their 100th birthday and San Jacinto Day, the legal holiday marking the anniversary of the battle which won Texas independence.

The sprightly twins were born April 21, 1858, at San Diego, Tex., about 240 miles south of here. Their formulas for a long and healthy life?

Mrs. Barrera recommends relaxation and a daily diet of fried chicken, a glass of milk and bacon and eggs.

"I like to gamble with cards," she adds with a twinkle.

Mrs. Ruiz prescribes a daily bottle of beer with meals of meat and corn tortillas.

Mrs. Barrera, who made her living as a laundress after her husband died 28 years ago, lives with one of her four children.

Mrs. Ruiz, mother of 14 children, lives across town.

General Motors Plans Big Changes

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors has well underway a program which will give each of its car divisions a new car every year, Automotive News said today.

The program is based on a one-body shell concept for all GM cars, the paper said. Automotive News said also GM reportedly has built three different proposed small cars. Best information, it adds, is that the one most likely to be produced is a rear-engine model, possibly with a unitized body and swing axles.

Only Two Plants Show Some Decline

By ROBERT K. HARROD
Editor The Herald

Business is good in Circleville.

A poll of varied businesses, industries and financial institutions here today showed 1958 business to date is as good as last year, if not better, with one or two exceptions.

Circleville's four banks, good barometers of business activity, all reported today that deposits are up slightly over 1957 and collections are good.

Auto dealers said sales are "very good." Grocers report total volume is up a little from last year's figures. Two large local industries declared business is increasing and a third said it is expecting a record month next month.

Only two industries have reported any kind of let-down in general activity — General Electric, which will lay off 84 women employees May 5, and Lincoln Molded Plastics, which reported "uncertain" prospects.

One local real estate man is preparing a new 26-home subdivision in the north end, with homes to range in the $14,000-$15,000 class.

Here are comments by some of Circleville's business leaders:

EMORY RIDLON, manager of the DuPont plant — "Business is continuing to increase. Orders are holding up well. It looks like it will maintain its present level. In fact, we have employed about 12-15 more people in the last two weeks."

L. D. VARBLE, manager of the Ralston Purina plant — "We had our best month since March 1954 last month. We expect to break all records in May. Generally, the company had its best month in history in March."

E. S. JANKURA, assistant treasurer, Lincoln Molded Plastics — "Our business is tied directly to the refrigerator business. Time to get out orders has been cut, giving us a more uncertain future. We had a small lay off and shut down last week, however, we expect to maintain a five-day week, at least in the near future."

D. J. CARPENTER, manager of the J. W. Eshelman & Sons, feed mill — "We are a little ahead of last year, so far, and we expect that to continue. I would say prospects are good."

J. C. VAN PELT, executive vice president of the Circleville Savings and Banking Co. — "We've not seen any serious setback. Collections are in good shape and deposits are up. Circleville has had no business catastrophe."

GEORGE FORESMAN, president of the First National Bank — "Business is very good. We have no complaints at all."

DURWARD DOWDEN, president of the Second National Bank — "Business is holding its own. Deposits are up a trifle. People are more cautious now, taking some of the punch from the economy, but I believe that makes for a more stable economy."

M. E. NOGGLE, executive vice president of the Third National Bank — "Business is booming. Deposits are in good shape. Labor is too well distributed here for a small letdown to hurt us in Circleville."

BONNER EZELL, president of the Circleville New Car Dealers Assn. — "The automobile business has been very good. We are very well off comparatively speaking. In fact the auto dealers are starting a 'You Auto Buy Now' campaign next month to help the national situation."

H. K. LANMAN, manager of the local Kroger Store — "Our business is ahead of last year."

R. C. KIFER, manager of the local A&P Store — "Our business is picking up, particularly in the last few weeks. Business is generally a fraction ahead of last year."

HAL DICKENSON, president of the Circleville Hardware Co. — "Business is good, better than last year."

R. P. BENNINGTON, owner of Benny's Restaurant — "Business is holding up well. It's as good as last year, even though I've noticed a small change due to the by-pass."

V. L. HAWKES, plant controller for the Container Corporation of America — "Things are very good right now."

DARRELL HATFIELD, real estate — "There is a lot of activity in the real estate business. Financing is getting easier."

Despite the fact that General Electric plans a lay off, E. G. Grigg, plant manager, said that the $2.5 million expansion program at the local plant will be started within the next 10 days.

Freak Rail Accident Causes Truck Detours on Route 23

A railway construction accident on a Route 23 over pass, three miles north of Chillicothe, halted truck travel on the highway for approximately 6 1/2 hours Saturday afternoon. All trucks were rerouted to Route 104.

The freak accident occurred between 2:45 and 3 p. m. Saturday according to Chesapeake & Ohio Railway Company officials. A 60-ton railroad steam crane was completely demolished and one man was severely injured.

Two cranes were involved in the accident as they were attempting to set a 42-ton girder into place over Route 23. The girder was 75 feet long and was almost in place when a 75-ton derrick crane, setting on the ground, slacked up on its end of the girder and threw all the weight of the girder onto the crane up on the railroad.

The railway crane toppled and fell about 15 to 20 feet, pinning crane operator Howard Irwin, 28, of Covington, Ky., underneath. He had to be cut out with a torch suffering contusions, chest injuries and severe head lacerations. He was listed in fair condition.

A PASSAGE large enough for passenger automobile traffic was left after the girder that fell, one end on the highway and the other end remaining on the tracks.

Repair crews came from the C & O Parsons Ave. Shop, Columbus. Truck traffic resumed at 9:36 p. m. Saturday. State Patrol Post 71, of Ross County reported construction continued this morning.

Congress May Delay Action On Recession

Business Leader Calls for Slash In Taxes Quickly

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congress may delay until June or even July any decision on reducing taxes to fight the recession.

This view was put forward today by influential members of the Democratic-controlled House, which originates tax legislation, in the midst of conflicting comments elsewhere that (a) that slump is leveling off or (b) that quick action by Congress is needed to boost the economy.

New support for a tax cut came in an economic study report by the Rockefeller Brothers fund recommending a series of public and private steps but calling a tax reduction the quickest way to get results.

The report itself made no specific recommendations as to timing or size but Nelson A. Rockefeller, fund president, said he personally favors a cut within a month and would go along with those economists who recommend a flash of up to $7 billion.

THE ATTITUDE of key members of Congress on taxes appears to have undergone some change in recent weeks. Earlier, the belief was prevalent that the decision would come in April or May—certainly not later than June 30, because many wartime excise tax rates are due to drop then unless extended.

But legislators considering the problem say these excises could be extended at present levels and changed later if excise cuts are decided upon.

The possibility of a tax cut was still very much in the picture.

Even if the economic slump proves to have slowed to a stop, some key members say a tax reduction still could be voted later to speed up recovery and get the economy off dead center earlier than if nature was allowed to take its course.

The Rockefeller report, prepared by a panel of businessmen and economists, stated:

"Of the antirecession measures available to the federal government, tax reduction can be effective in the shortest time. This panel believes that a tax cut would help overcome the current recession and expand employment."

The Rockefeller report left the amount up to the administration and Congress "in the light of the best information available when the tax cut is made."

FOR A LONG-range tax program, the panel recommended revision of the income tax structure with lower and more equitable rates.

The report listed possible "immediate antirecession measures" in six areas:

1. Private business, through aggressiveness and initiative in selling and developing new products.

2. Tax reduction: "Properly designed, it can have an immediate impact on both consumption and investment."

3. Public works — but "only useful projects" which can be quickly started and completed.

4. Easier monetary policy by the Federal Reserve system to make more money and credit available.

5. Added unemployment compensation to supplement state programs.

6. Top-level guidance: "There is need for an informal advisory committee to meet at the call of the President and under his direct leadership . . . to consider and advise on stabilization policy, either antirecession or anti-inflationary as appropriate."

Paratroopers Slated To Use Clinton Base

FT. CAMPBELL, Ky. (AP) — Paratroopers of the 101st Airborne Division are being moved from here to Clinton County Air Force Base at Wilmington, Ohio.

They will strike from there and five other bases Wednesday in a renewal of a simulated atomic war. The brief layoff is to repair weapons and equipment.

Military Fund Decision Urged

Solon Decries Delay In Ike's Proposal

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. Kilday (D-Tex.) said today the issue of giving the secretary of defense a bigger say in the use of military funds is before Congress now.

Kilday, a senior member of the House Armed Services Committee, said it is a dangerous mistake to think that President Eisenhower has postponed for a year this aspect of his defense reorganization plan — perhaps the most controversial part of it.

When Eisenhower sent Congress the draft legislation last Wednesday, he said the secretary of defense needs "greater flexibility in money matters." He added that no legislation was required, but that he had directed that the budget for the fiscal year beginning July 1, 1959, should be prepared on a new basis.

This was generally interpreted as a move to delay the battle in Congress over the major fiscal aspect of defense reorganization until this budget comes up next January.

BUT KILDAY said there is one section in the Eisenhower draft bill which, if adopted by Congress in the meanwhile, could greatly strengthen the administration's position on military funds.

This section would delete the word "separately" from the following passage in the existing law: "The Departments of the Army, Navy and Air Force shall be separately administered by their respective secretaries under the direction, authority and control of the secretary of defense."

This issue and others in the reorganization plan may be argued Tuesday when the Armed Services Committee opens hearings on Eisenhower's proposal. Secretary of Defense McElroy is listed as lead-off witness.

Teamster Leader To Defy Probers

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Local Teamster leader Raymond P. Cohen swears he will stay silent except to cite the Fifth Amendment when he returns to Washington Tuesday to resume testifying before the Senate Rackets Committee.

He shouted this promise Sunday over the welcoming roar of 2,500 teamsters of Local 107 in a Philadelphia hall. Cohen is secretary-treasurer of the local. Over the hall doorway hung a dummy. It wore a sign reading: "John J. McClellan. We vote for who we want. This is not Little Rock."

Sen. McClellan (D-Ark.) is chairman of the Senate committee.

Stock Prices Nudge Toward 1958 High

NEW YORK (U.S.A.)—The stock market nudged into new high ground for 1958 early this afternoon in fairly active dealings.

Most gains of leading stocks were fractional. A few went to around a point.

Oils and aircrafts showed about the best rise but no particular stock group was outstanding. Rails were well ahead on average although gains were small. Motors, rubbers, utilities and radio-televisions moved forward.

The market was encountering a technical resistance area represented by a supply of stocks available around the prices reached at the Feb. 4 high for the year, analysts said. It also had to contend with two straight weeks of steady rises.

Boeing was about the best of the aircrafts, gaining a point or so. Gulf Oil also was up around a point.

Bethlehem Steel and U.S. Steel gained fractionally despite the continued low level of steel industry output. Youngstown Sheet made a similar gain.

Chrysler posted a small advance. General Motors was about unchanged.

Small gains for such were made by Baltimore and Ohio and Southern Railway.

U.S. government bonds leaned toward the upside.

Indonesian Rebels Stiffen

Determined Stand Made on Sumatra

SINGAPORE (U.S.A.)—The Sumatran rebels are reported to be making their first determined military stand in the two-month-old Indonesian civil war.

One of their leaders, meanwhile, came out in the open in recaptured Padang, defying threats of reprisal by President Sukarno's forces.

Mohamed Natsir, leader of the Moslem Masjumi party, appeared Sunday and spoke at a mass prayer meeting on the outskirts of Padang, the Central Sumatran port city captured by 6,000 Sukarno troops Thursday. The rebel radio reported the occupying forces left him alone.

The bulk of Sukarno's invasion force was pushing up a tortuous mountain road toward the rebel capital of Bukittinggi.

ALTHOUGH the outnumbered rebels melted away during last week's assault on Padang, a high military source in Jakarta reported the Sukarno troops ran into heavy opposition and had advanced only 18 miles from Padang in three days.

According to the invasion timetable, Bukittinggi should have fallen Sunday, but the central government troops still had 40 mountainous miles to go then. Help could come from a government column pushing north.

The rebel radio claimed the push on Bukittinggi had been stopped.

It claimed rebel troops launched a counteroffensive and had reentered Padang Sunday night, shooting up central government troop positions. The broadcast did not make clear whether the rebels remained in Padang.

The sudden show of rebel force and Natsir's appearance indicated that the rebels, despite their imminent military defeat, planned to continue a campaign for their original demands.

Although the rebels have adopted anticommunism as a major rallying cry, their deepest grievance against the central government on Java is its economic drain on Sumatra and the other Outer Islands.

First National Loan Department Office Remodeled

Roy C. Marshall, manager of the installment loan department of the First National Bank, today announced that its new offices at 110 N. Court St., should be open for business June 1.

Marshall said the former Millers' Barber Shop space is being completely remodeled and ultra-modern equipment will be installed for customer convenience.

The office construction is under contract to Roy Young and will be air-conditioned. Marshall said the construction was necessary because the loan department had outgrown its area in the bank. The office and bank will be connected.

Additional advantage, according to Marshall, will be a parking lot available in the rear.

News in Brief Bidault Tries Naming Cabinet

PARIS (U.S.A.)—Georges Bidault, former premier and long-time foreign minister, today began trying to form a cabinet which would take a tough line toward Tunisia and rebuff any foreign intercession except on France's side.

Bidault, veteran leader of the Catholic Popular Republican Movement, was given slight chance of lining up a majority in the National Assembly. Although his party is slightly left of center, his North African policy was likely to find outright favor only with the militant rightist minority.

Bidault was President Coty's first choice to try to end the crisis caused by the resignation last Tuesday of Premier Felix Gailard. The MRP leader was one of three deputies from his party who sided with the rightists and Communists to overthrow the government by voting down the U. S.-British good offices mission's compromise proposal to smooth over the French-Tunisian dispute.

AMMAN, Jordan (U.S.A.)—Saudi Arabia's government says it is not joining either President Nasser's United Arab Republic or the Arab Federation of Jordan and Iraq.

Transfer of control of the government recently from King Saud to his brother Crown Prince Faisal had aroused speculation that Faisal, believed to have pro-Nasser sympathies, would line up with the U.A.R.

PORT OF SPAIN, Trinidad (U.S.A.)—Britain's Princess Margaret set out today to renew her acquaintance with this island of calypso which first captured her fancy two years ago.

The 27-year-old princess was greeted by cheering thousands who braved a drizzling rain to see her arrive Sunday. She is here on a state visit to open the new West Indies Federation Legislature Tuesday.

Later she will leave on an 11,000-mile tour of British Guiana, Jamaica, British Honduras and Nassau. She returns home May 7.

WINDSOR, England (U.S.A.)—A military band at Windsor Castle played "Happy Birthday" this morning and Queen Elizabeth had a small family luncheon party in observance of her 32nd birthday. Further official celebrations were not planned. The Queen's official birthday observance is held in June, when the weather is better.

MONTE CARLO, Monaco (U.S.A.)—This tiny Riviera principality threw a party Sunday for the baptism of tiny Prince Albert Alexandre Louis Pierre.

The 37-day-old heir to the throne wore the same white lace dress in which his father Prince Rainier was baptized in 1922.

A palace guard released 2,000 pigeons, then the 5,000 persons left the palace square for a bullfight, nautical events, champagne and fireworks.

LJUBLJANA, Yugoslavia (U.S.A.)—Yugoslav Communist leaders huddled today before facing a big party congress that Kremlin-line Reds have boycotted.

President Tito and his top lieutenants have said nothing publicly on the decision by the Soviet Union and most other European countries to boycott the congress, the first since Tito and the Kremlin were reconciled.

The Soviets ordered the boycott on account of the Yugoslav party's draft program to be debated at the six-day meeting. The original deplored all military blocks.

OTTAWA (U.S.A.)—The Canadian

RESCUED IN VAIN — James McGary, 35, is carried unconscious from his burning third-floor apartment by Boston firemen. He died en route to St. Elizabeth's hospital. The blaze forced 14 other persons into the street.

Firemen Answer Eshelman Alarm

Circleville firemen were called to the J. W. Eshelman and Sons plant at 3:28 p.m. Friday when an electric lamp caused a fire in a machine at the mill. Heat set off an automatic sprinkler head, with water causing not more than $100 damage, plant officials reported.

Health Department concludes that nuclear explosions in the past year have not caused any appreciable increase in the level of long-term radioactivity in Canada.

Dr. E. A. Watkinson, a principal medical officer of the Health Department, said in an interview that radiation exposure from nuclear fallout still is only a small fraction of the radiation to which man has always been subjected from a variety of natural sources.

TOKYO (U.S.A.)—The upper house of Japan's Parliament today adopted unanimously a resolution calling for immediate cessation of nuclear weapon tests.

CATANIA, Sicily (U.S.A.)—Scientists said today a new series of eruptions has burst open two new craters atop Mt. Etna.

The famous old volcano has been increasingly active during the past six months. After a period of quiet it began spewing steam and lava again this week-end.

As yet the hamlets on the lower slopes of the volcano appeared to be in no danger.

RABAT, Morocco (U.S.A.)—Continuing her territorial dispute with Spain, Morocco has demanded the immediate withdrawal of all Spanish troops from this North African country.

Spain's forces, estimated at about 35,000, are stationed mostly along the Mediterranean.

Recently, Morocco has been pressing a campaign to acquire parts of Spanish Sahara, French West Africa and southwest Algeria. The vast desert areas are believed to contain mineral deposits.

The youth was treated at a local physician's office for lacerations of the face and right side. He was thrown from the car as the result of a collision with a pickup truck.

Arrival of Spring Trims Public Interest in Politics

By ART PARKS
COLUMBUS, Ohio (P) — Spring arrived with a rush this week and practically killed off whatever little spark of interest the public was showing in the May 6 primary elections.

The farmers are plowing, homeowners are spending their evenings cleaning the winter debris from their yard and the younger voters are running around with their convertible tops down.

Who's worrying in this kind of weather about the nominees for November's election? It just ain't human!

While many an aspiring candidate's vine will wither in the heat of the spring sun, heads of party organizations all over Ohio really relish this kind of weather.

When Joe Blow—who has no direct connection with any political organization—ignores the primaries, the control of party organizations becomes that much more effective. Joe Blow wakes up in November and discovers he has a choice between two nominees he had no part in selecting.

You think we're kidding? Dept. The other night in Columbus, candidates outnumbered their audience 6-1 at a "rally." After 45 frustrating minutes, the meeting was called off without a speech having been delivered. Reason: By that time, candidates outnumbered the audience of three by an 8-1 ratio.

Democrats are talking hopefully for the first time in nearly a decade of taking over control of the 103rd General Assembly which meets next January.

Republicans have hadtop-heavy majorities in both Houses in every Legislature since the 98th. That was the 1949 session.

Best private opinion seems to be that the Democrats might have a chance to take control of the House by a narrow margin. Barring an upheaval between now and November, the Senate seems safely in the GOP field.

This week's Ohio Supreme Court decision voiding the new law designed to give Cuyahoga County five instead of three county commissioners put a severe crimp in the political careers of some members of the Cuyahoga County delegation to the Legislature.

At petition-filing deadline last February, there were three openings on the Cuyahoga County Board of Commissioners. The court ruling means there will be only one.

Senate Minority Leader Joseph W. Bartunek and Sen. Frank D. Celebrezze stepped out of the Senate race to seek commissioner posts. And Rep. Frank M. Gorman also deserted the legislative halls in quest of county office.

Now the best the retiring lawmakers can do is elect one of their number to the commissioners' board. The other's will retire to private life.

Dept. of "Now We Know" Alvin I. Krenzler, in 1956 was the Cuyahoga County power-behind-the-throne in the successful campaign of C. William O'Neill for the governorship.

For the first few weeks of O'Neill's administration, Krenzler was much in evidence around the executive office. But, after an abortive effort to take over the reins of the Cuyahoga County Republican organization, Krenzler was seen less and less around the governor's statehouse office.

Recently, O'Neill named Milo Warner of Toledo, past national commander of the American Legion, as his 1958 campaign manager. After seeing Warner at the statehouse this week, an observer was embarrassed when he could not recall Warner's name.

A telephone call to the governor's office put this query: "What is the name of the man who is running the governor's campaign?"

"Why, Buddy Krenzler, so far as I know," came the reply.

Ohioans Setting Up Unique Inland 'Free Trade Zone'

BELLEVILLE, Ohio (P)—A group of Ohioans looking forward to the day when the St. Lawrence Seaway will bring international commerce on a big scale to the Midwest, have started the plan which can give the Buckeye state an edge in commercial competition with other Great Lakes states. It is a free trade zone—the first inland free trade zone in the nation.

And just what is a free trade zone?

Simply, it is an area—usually in a seaport—where importers can store, process and prepare for market merchandise without paying import duties and excise taxes.

Unless stored or transhipped to such a zone, such taxes and duties must be paid at the time the goods enter the country.

This can be expensive for importers, tying up vital capital prior to sales, but with a free trade zone an importer need pay duties and taxes only at the time his merchandise enters the market.

Ohio's free trade zone is to be located on a 3,000 acre tract of land two miles north of Belleville in Logan County on the main line of the New York Central Railroad.

The last session of the General Assembly passed the necessary enabling legislation to establish the zone. Backers are now seeking federal approval, considered a formality.

Backers of Inlandia include the Stride Exchange System of Belleville, John W. Galbreath & Co. of Columbus, Midwest International House of Cincinnati, Samborn, Steketee & Associates, Otis and Evans of Toledo, and the Dayton Power and Light Co.

On Tuesday, April 22, the Inlandia Board of Trade headed by C. C. Wood will sponsor British-American day here to emphasize the international nature of Inlandia. Douglas J. B. Robey, consul general of the British Consulate in Cleveland, will be guest of honor.

Among the facilities planned for Inlandia are exhibition buildings housing exhibits of the world's latest products, machinery and equipment. Educational and cultural exhibits would be included so that in time Inlandia would become a permanent small world's fair.

Users of the zone also will be provided with a clearing house to consolidate financial transactions and eliminate needless transfers of foreign currency.

Stuebenville Sees Special Cop Patrol

STUEBENVILLE (P)—Special police squads, under orders from Mayor Michael J. Cody to clean up vice, patrolled the streets here over the weekend.

They found no illegal activity in 24 hours of continuous patrolling. The plainclothes men operated under a directive which has been questioned by their chief. The directive said that if orders are not carried out "to the fullest extent, drastic measures will be taken to correct this situation."

Mayor Cody said the "drastic measures" in the order issued by his safety-service director, Frank Owsney, Thursday, meant that policemen would be fired.

O'Neill Ticket Pressure Reported

CLEVELAND (P)—Accusations have been made that pressure was used by a state liquor store supervisor to sell state employees tickets to a dinner for Gov. C. William O'Neill tonight.

The Cleveland Plain Dealer quoted an employee of a state liquor store, not named, as saying $10 tickets for the dinner at Masonic Auditorium were being forced on liquor store help.

Chief Supervisor Claire M. Hall of the Cleveland district denied the report, saying he had received "over a hundred of those tickets the first of last week with instructions to offer them on a voluntary basis."

NEW YORK (P)—Faint glimmerings of a business pickup flickered across the nation's economic scene last week.

There was still no sign of a broad upswing but there could be no doubting that some industries and some businesses were getting set for better times.

Underwood Corp. said new orders received last month were 34 per cent ahead of February. Aluminum Co. of America announced that new business booked in March was the best in four months.

P. Lorillard Co. reported first quarter earnings up 116 per cent from last year. President W. M. Elmer of Texas Gas Transmission Corp. reported higher first-quarter profits and declared: "Our earnings for 1958 should exceed those of last year."

Westinghouse Electric Corp. cancelled plans for laying off some 800 employees at its major appliance plant in Columbus, Ohio. In Tulsa, President R. W. McDowell of D-X Sunray Oil Co. said: "We aren't worried about a recession. In fact we're experiencing a sales boom."

Frederick R. Kappel, president of American Telephone & Telegraph Co., told stockholders of the giant communications firm that we should be bottoming out of the recession about now.

There was a new surge of confidence along Wall Street. The stock market finished the week with a strong forward kick.

All over the United States, consumers were being urged to beat the recession by buying now.

In Bristol, R.I., Robert Rulon-Miller, president of Dixon Corp., handed $6,000 to his 130 employees and told them to shoot the works. "Buy sensibly," said Rulon-Miller, "but buy now."

Mass meetings, parades and brass bands ushered in "Buy Now" campaigns in other cities.

Merchants whetted consumer appetites with spectacular price promotions. Gimbels New York store offered mink stoles at $59 each.

In Washington, Federal Reserve authorities took new steps to make money easier and cheaper to borrow.

Famous diary writer Samuel Pepys died in 1703 at the age of 70.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: My daughter Ann, 24, works in an office and lives at home. Although considered a good worker, she has held five jobs in the last year—always wanting more pay, never staying long enough to get it.

She doesn't help at home, nor does she pay board; says she'd rather move out than pay—although she has a nice home, open to friends. She makes pretty good money, but draws on me when she runs short.

Ann has a friend, I'll call her Jean, who is 35. Ann goes to Jean's house every night to watch TV, and Jean's parents say "There is something wrong, when she sits and never speaks." Jean also tells me that Ann needs help. Ann often eats there, although I say she imposes—as they can't afford it.

Jean is very possessive of Ann, and when Ann has gone out with boys (nice boys), Jean picks them to pieces critically, until Ann drops them. When Ann and Jean quarrel, Jean runs to me to complain that Ann is too young for her, and should be out having fun. She says that she (Jean) "has had her good times"—and "this is the end" of her seeing Ann. Frankly, I find Ann easier to handle when Jean is out of the picture. Ann seems brighter, happier, and more sociable then.

I've thought of selling out and moving away, but would it solve the problem? Ann still would sit around some other friend's house and waste her young years. She is a good girl otherwise and never misses church. If she had medical care I doubt she would follow orders. Any of her cronies in the last years are over 35.

Boy, 14, Tries To Find His Dad

CINCINNATI (P)—Fourteen-year-old Stephen Barrton, who wanted to see his father so badly he ran away last Friday, must return to the Children's Home here.

The youth, who hadn't seen his father in 10 years, had figured he would surely recognize him in Chicago.

But he didn't bank on Chicago being such a big place. The bewildered youth walked into a Chicago police station Saturday and told his story.

He said his father was Harry Olen Barrton and his mother remarried after a divorce.

Detectives said Johnson struck Boda with his hand after the custodian accused Johnson of throwing coffee grounds into the bathtub. Boda went away, returning with his revolver, then shot Johnson, police reported.

Westinghouse Electric Corp. cancelled plans for laying off some 800 employees at its major appliance plant in Columbus, Ohio. In Tulsa, President R. W. McDowell of D-X Sunray Oil Co. said: "We aren't worried about a recession. In fact we're experiencing a sales boom."

Frederick R. Kappel, president of American Telephone & Telegraph Co., told stockholders of the giant communications firm that we should be bottoming out of the recession about now.

There was a new surge of confidence along Wall Street. The stock market finished the week with a strong forward kick.

All over the United States, consumers were being urged to beat the recession by buying now.

In Bristol, R.I., Robert Rulon-Miller, president of Dixon Corp., handed $6,000 to his 130 employees and told them to shoot the works. "Buy sensibly," said Rulon-Miller, "but buy now."

Mass meetings, parades and brass bands ushered in "Buy Now" campaigns in other cities.

Merchants whetted consumer appetites with spectacular price promotions. Gimbel's New York store offered mink stoles at $59 each.

In Washington, Federal Reserve authorities took new steps to make money easier and cheaper to borrow.

"Mary Haworth's Mail"

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: My daughter Ann, 24, works in an office and lives at home. Although considered a good worker, she has held five jobs in the last year—always wanting more pay, never staying long enough to get it.

She doesn't help at home, nor does she pay board; says she'd rather move out than pay—although she has a nice home, open to friends. She makes pretty good money, but draws on me when she runs short.

Ann has a friend, I'll call her Jean, who is 35. Ann goes to Jean's house every night to watch TV, and Jean's parents say "There is something wrong, when she sits and never speaks." Jean also tells me that Ann needs help. Ann often eats there, although I say she imposes—as they can't afford it.

Jean is very possessive of Ann, and when Ann has gone out with boys (nice boys), Jean picks them to pieces critically, until Ann drops them. When Ann and Jean quarrel, Jean runs to me to complain that Ann is too young for her, and should be out having fun. She says that she (Jean) "has had her good times"—and "this is the end" of her seeing Ann. Frankly, I find Ann easier to handle when Jean is out of the picture. Ann seems brighter, happier, and more sociable then.

I've thought of selling out and moving away, but would it solve the problem? Ann still would sit around some other friend's house and waste her young years. She is a good girl otherwise and never misses church. If she had medical care I doubt she would follow orders. Any of her cronies in the last years are over 35.

CINCINNATI (AP)—Fourteen-year-old Stephen Bartron, who wanted to see his father so badly he ran away last Friday, must return to the Children's Home here. The youth, who hadn't seen his father in 10 years, had figured he would surely recognize him in Chicago.

But he didn't bank on Chicago being such a big place. The bewildered youth walked into a Chicago police station Saturday and told his story.

He said his father was Harry Olen Bartron and his mother remarried after a divorce.

Harry and His Tricks

There was something familiar about Harry S. Truman's appearance before a congressional committee. It involved another of his frequent brushes with the press, and this time he would have been wiser to let well enough alone.

Truman should have known better, even Arthur Krock, the highly respected correspondent of the New York Times, in 1950 that "A certain amount of unemployment, say from three to five millions, is support-

France--'Sick Man of Europe'

France, politically "the sick man of Europe," is again running a temperature. The power of government, already inadequate, is falling into further decline. Failure to end the Algerian war, at once cause and effect of worsening conditions, adds to the patient's anemia.

The Gaillard government has fallen by losing a vote of confidence in the National Assembly. Its toppling was accompanied by anti-American outbursts.

It could be argued with some cogency that France needs a temporary dictatorship which would restore the authority of government, impose a new democratic constitution providing for a government strong able" and that job-seeking is healthful. The interview, he said tartly, never took place.

Truman should have known better, even though it was understandably embarrassing for him to have these words thrown back at him. The record promptly proved that he had long ago acknowledged the interview which he now repudiates.

No, five years of retirement haven't changed Truman. He's still the same old Harry.

He Gets Ahead from Top Down

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK —In most fields a man gets ahead by going from the bottom to the top.

George Abou ben Hamid—may his tribe increase!—did it the other way. Now one of America's leading showmen, he won success by working his way from the top to the bottom.

"I started as an acrobat at the age of 7 in Lebanon," explained Hamid. "The novice always acts as top man on the human pyramid. His goal is to work down until he is the ground man and holds the others up."

Hamid now runs the world's largest booking agency for thrill acts. He owns the Steel Pier at Atlantic City and a chain of movie houses. He also is currently staging the Beatty-Hamid-Morton Circus, billed as the largest under canvas.

But at 62, George, one of the top tumblers of his time, can still turn a cartwheel in his office and thinks it isn't a bad way for a busy executive to pep up his circulation.

"I could probably still do a somersault—maybe for Marilyn Monroe," he remarked genially.

Hamid has known most of the entertainment figures of two generations, but his lifelong favorites are Col. William (Buffalo Bill) Cody and Annie Oakley, star marksmen with the colonel's famous Wild West show.

"I came to this country with the show 50 years ago," he recalled. "Annie Oakley bought me my first primer and taught me to read. She gave me the only schooling I ever had."

"Col. Cody made a pet of me. I remember making lemonade for him during the summertime. I started with him for 25 cents a week."

"Buffalo Bill was my hero. No man since has been worshiped in quite the way he was. They even closed the schools when he came to town."

It was after the Buffalo Bill show folded in 1913 that Hamid started in the booking field finding jobs for the stranded acts.

Today he runs a multimillion-dollar operation and culls the world for acts.

Although he has booked the highest-priced talent in the show world, his own heart still is with the lower-paid circus performers who may risk death for a low wage.

"It burns me up to pay a singer $25,000 a week," he said, "when a tightrope walker who spent years learning his skill and puts his life in his feet every time he goes up can get only $350 to $400. It's an injustice. But the public determines the pay."

What distinguishes circus performers from the ordinary people who go to see them?

"They have a pride in family tradition," said Hamid. "One circus family tries to outdo the other. Within a family the son tries to outdo his father."

"Life isn't so much of a challenge to most people. But life is a challenge every day to circus performers. That is why they seldom ever quit willingly."

Money Trust Poses Problem

By George Sokolsky

It is an old story in the United States that the power over the flow of money tends to become concentrated. Wall Street has become the symbol of such a concentration because Wall Street is the money market of the country.

Usually, it is spoken of as the stock market, but a share of stock is nothing more than a receipt for money, negotiable and exchangeable and having fluctuation value because it can be sold for money.

Populistic and other agrarian movements, throughout American history, have been aimed at the money power and there have been innumerable Congressional investigations, one of the most significant being the Pujo Committee (1912-13) which directly attacked the money trust. Laws have been set up to control private power over the money of the nation and its uses in the market for the distribution of money into new and expanding industry and commerce.

For this purpose, the SEC was organized and controls were set up with the object of policing the flow of money from the public into enterprises. There are only two places where large reservoirs of money exist, namely, in the government, either by the accumulation of taxes, or among the people's savings wherever deposited. The SEC has neither the money nor the personnel to do an adequate job of policing the use of money in stock transactions. It is now up against a larger and more concentrated money power than J. P. Morgan ever knew, and it lacks the facilities, to say nothing of the will, to do the job.

The very able writer on financial matters, Leslie Gould, has often called attention to the failures and faults of the SEC and whereas his facts are always correct, I am not sure that blaming the SEC adequately covers the problem. First, the law is inadequate; secondly, SEC should either be an administrative or a judicial body and not both as it is now; thirdly, the pay of commissioners should be high enough to attract personnel who will not eventually have to

Help Children Overcome Fears

By Herman N. Bundesen, M.D.

Watch out for colds as the weather begins to get warmer. We know that epidemics of colds often follow a change in atmospheric conditions. And passage of a cold front often brings an increase in the number of colds within two or three days.

This is true no matter where you live.

A cold climate doesn't necessarily mean the residents will have more colds. As a matter of fact, residents of the southern states usually have more colds than those in other parts of the nation.

The best place to avoid a cold apparently is on the Eastern Seaboard. Persons living there generally have fewer colds than the average for the nation as a whole.

Yet making your own climate doesn't help prevent colds.

People once had the silly idea that sleeping on a porch with the windows open to cold air was a good way to toughen yourself against colds. This, of course, is nonsense, since the chilly temperature may even aggravate a cough or a cold.

But exposure does not necessarily start a cold. British researchers proved this by taking some cold-free volunteers, soaking them in hot baths and then having them stand undried in bathrobes in a cold corridor.

They remained there at least half an hour.

Then they put on wet socks and wore them for several hours. Not one of them came down with a cold. Thus, while chilling can lower your resistance to a cold virus, it is not enough by itself to start a common cold. You catch a cold by being contaminated by a virus.

The best way to avoid a cold, therefore, is to avoid anyone who has one. But this, of course, is extremely difficult to do.

A cough can spray particles 15 feet or more, propelling them from the mouth at a speed of about 120 miles per hour. Anyone nearby is apt to inhale this germ-laden spray, and another person falls victim to the common cold.

Keep your resistance up and you'll have a better chance of avoiding a cold and a better chance of fighting it off if you do catch one.

Just use common sense. Live sensibly, get plenty of rest, eat balanced, nutritious meals and avoid getting wet or chilled.

The World Today

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON — Fifty years ago Ezra Pound was fired from his teaching job at Wabash College for being too much the bohemian. It was a time of sterility, soothing syrup and bleak puritanism in American literature.

He protested and wanted to correct it. To do it, he left the America he grew up in and went to Europe. He spent the rest of his life there calling the mass of Americans dolts.

Last week in federal court he heard a judge dismiss a treason charge against him because doctors said he was hopelessly insane —although not the kind to hurt anyone.

Photographers wanted a picture. He posed with his collar open, his shirttails sticking out, a beat-up black felt hat on his head and a yellow scarf around his neck. He was still the bohemian, but dilapidated now, and terribly tired-looking at 72.

What had happened in those 50 years? He had become a famous poet; a tremendous good and creative force in literature; a benefactor to many artists; and, the government charged, a traitor because he broadcast Fascist propaganda from Italy during World War II.

English literature is the greater for his having been alive. The debt to him is not so much for his own poetry—moments of brilliance amid acres of obscurity and incoherence—as for his creative influence.

He meant his great work to be his cantos. He worked on them for decades. An epic on the human comedy, he called them. Critic Edmund Wilson dismissed them as a "monument . . . to a kind of poetic bankruptcy."

But Carl Sandburg acknowledged years ago that Pound has "done the most of living men to incite new impulses in poetry."

This was the creative influence which Pound asserted in many ways and on many people:

By driving for new forms of expression; by breaking down in this country frozen or prudish barriers to the publication of new and original work; by his advice to other artists and the financial help and audience he got for them; and by the self-discipline he could impose on others but could never impose on himself entirely.

These were some of the men he helped in one way or another: James Joyce, William Butler Yeats, D. H. Lawrence, Robert Frost, T. S. Eliot, Ernest Hemingway.

There was an adolescence in Pound. Critic Malcolm Cowley, who visited him in Paris in 1923, quoted Pound as saying he wrote to shock the public. The recognition he got in this country was very limited, and late.

History may regard Pound not so much as an artist himself but what he set out to be at Wabash: a teacher.

Havana Cop Feared, Hated

Ventura Is Accused Of Torture Tactics

HAVANA —Police Maj. Esteban Ventura is one of the most hated men in Havana.

He is often accused of practicing tortures to force confessions from rebels or anyone else arrested suspected of being an enemy of Batista's government.

Ventura, 40, technically is commandant only of the 3rd Police District in this capital city. Actually he seems to boss the roundup of all suspected rebels and "other criminal elements" throughout the city.

Many trembling young Cubans—and old men and women—have looked into the cold, steely eyes of Ventura, always smiling and always dressed immaculately in white linen suits.

He loves publicity and his picture gets into the papers far more than that of President Fulgencia Batista. Everytime Ventura's police round up a score or more of suspected rebels and seize big arms caches, he holds a news conference to announce the event.

Without exception, every prisoner confesses to revolutionary or other activities when questioned before newsmen.

Most of the prisoners, for their public appearance, seem in good physical shape. But they never remove their shirts or other clothing.

Ventura is credited with being an avid student of torture methods. Some Cubans say he learned from Angel Borlenghi who was minister of Interior in Argentina under the dictatorship of Juan Peron. Borlenghi now runs a restaurant in Havana.

An obscure lieutenant, he won attention about five years ago when a Roman Catholic priest, the Rev. Ramon O'Farrell, was accused of plotting to have Batista assassinated. The priest, beaten, suffered rib fractures, internal injuries, and loss of hearing in one ear. Father O'Farrell now lives in Miami.

Industry Urged To Increase Its Research

$4 Billion a Year Now Being Poured Into Test Tubes

By SAM DAWSON
NEW YORK (AP)—Industry is being prodded today — even in the face of its cost cutting drive — to put more money into basic research for its own and the nation's needs.

It is already pouring about four billion dollars a year into industrial research, but the lion's share of that is for applied research. That is, its scientists seek to develop new products or new processes that eventually will pour billions into the till through increased sales.

The lag here in basic research came to the fore dramatically when the Soviets launched their Sputniks. President Eisenhower has called for more scientific pioneering, which means more basic research.

At a meeting sponsored by the American Assn. for the Advancement of Science speakers said total research spending by government, universities and industry was growing but basic research was taking an increasingly smaller share.

But industrial leaders say that industry already is stepping up its long-term research projects.

E. V. Murphree, president of Esso Research and Engineering Co., says that about 20 per cent of his company's research effort could be classified as basic research. He thinks that about 800 million dollars of basic research a year is being carried out in the nation's industrial laboratories.

And corporations are subsidizing millions of dollars worth of university and institutional research. One example: the Stanford Research Institute at Menlo Park, Calif., reports that in 1957 it undertook contract research amounting to nearly 15 million dollars, with half for the government and half for business, industry, foundations and individuals.

The basic research that corporations pay for naturally tends to be in the fields in which the companies operate. Scientists employed in the laboratories of stockholder owned corporations try hard to get some sort of foreseeable connection between the research projects and the goal of any productive enterprise: profit making.

Here are just a few of the many examples of what corporations are doing and planning in basic research:

Schering will soon establish research facilities where a group of scientists and laboratory workers, insulated from the rest of the drug company, will spend full time on basic medical and chemical research.

The Salt Institute, a trade group is trying to develop techniques for using salt as a vehicle to carry hormones, vitamins and other cattle needs to beef cattle.

Owens-Illinois Glass at its Toledo technical center has a basic research program into the chemistry and composition of glass.

The list of corporate research could go on and on.

Portland, Ore., will celebrate the 50th Anniversary of its famed Rose Festival in June. In the "Grand Floral Parade" will be fifty flower-covered floats, each depicting one year from the last half-century.

AP Chiefs Urge Reporting Of All 'Unfavorable' News

NEW YORK (AP)—The government and press, radio and television have a duty to report the facts — unfavorable as well as favorable — directors of The Associated Press said today.

They cited the business recession and failure of the first Vanguard satellite missile as examples of unfavorable news that should not be suppressed.

"It would be a disservice to emphasize bad news out of proportion, but it would be unthinkable to attempt to suppress news of any kind," the directors said in their annual report.

"Nothing could be better calculated to destroy public confidence quickly and completely."

The report, read at the AP annual membership meeting in the Waldorf-Astoria Hotel, said "the strength of democracy lies in an informed people."

The directors noted that the launching of two Russian Sputniks was followed by a clamor for the United States to match the Soviets.

"With much advance notice and full news coverage, the attempt was made in December to launch the Vanguard — and it failed," the directors said.

"Both the armed services and the news media were blamed by some critics for creating a spectacle of the failure and injuring the United States in the eyes of the world. We believe this criticism shortsighted."

A totalitarian government can release only the good news and hide its failures. In a free country, it is the duty of the government (in this case the armed services) and press, radio and television, to report the facts, good and bad."

Of the reporting of the business recession, the directors' report said:

"As increased unemployment, slackening business and other factors added up to a recession, some individuals suggested seriously that news media had accelerated (or even caused) the downturn by reporting unfavorable facts."

"Here again the function of a free press in a free country is misunderstood."

The directors said "Associated Press coverage has provided what the public has a right to expect — thorough, fair and factual reporting."

Referring to the Little Rock school integration story, the report said:

"Editors of AP newspapers lined up on opposing sides editorially, but for their news columns they used, almost without exception, the factual accounts by AP's reporters and photographers."

Describing the past year as one of dramatic news on many fronts, the report said the AP again had met challenging demands.

"Public interest shifted drastically with the shifts on the world scene," the report noted. "The

Roy Sievers Is Big Pain To Red Sox

Washington Star Hits Homer To Dump Boston Third Time

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

No wonder the Boston Red Sox have been trying to lure Roy Sievers from Washington during the past few years. The guy simply murders 'em.

Sievers was at it again Sunday as Washington made it three straight over the Red Sox with a 6-5 triumph. The big outfielder walloped a 10th inning home run.

The victory moved the Senators into a second-place tie with Kansas City, which also won its third game in five starts, defeating the Chicago White Sox 8-2. The league-leading New York Yankees made it five victories in six starts when Bob Turley hurled a 7-0 shutout over the Baltimore Orioles. Cleveland hit four home runs to edge out Detroit 4-2.

In the National League, St. Louis thrashed Chicago 9-4. A ninth-inning home run by rookie first baseman R. C. Stevens broke a tie and gave Pittsburgh a 4-3 victory over Cincinnati. Robin Roberts hurled a five-hitter as Philadelphia nipped Milwaukee 3-2. The San Francisco Giants blasted three home runs to overcome the Los Angeles Dodgers 12-2.

In addition to his game-winning homer, Sievers collected a double and triple. The 31-year-old slugger had only a single in the season's opener against the Red Sox but it drove in the tying run. In Saturday's victory over Boston, he again tied the score with a ninth-inning home run.

Five-hit pitching by Jack Urban and three-run homers by Bill Tuttle and Billy Hunter featured Kansas City's victory over Chicago. The homers were hit off Bill Fischer, who had gone 100-23 in innings without giving up a four-bagger.

All runs in Cleveland's victory over Detroit were scored on homers. Roger Maris, Rocky Colavito, Minnie Miñoso and Dick Brown hit them for Cleveland and Ray Boone's second of the season accounted for both Tiger runs.

The National League's best and worst streaks ended Sunday. The man responsible? Stan Musial. Who else?

Having seen his St. Louis mates drop their first four games this season—all to the Chicago Cubs—Stan the Man finally decided to take matters into his own hands. He smashed two home runs and drove in four runs to lead the Cardinals to a 9-4 victory over previously unbeaten Chicago.

The Cubs' league lead was cut to half a game by the San Francisco Giants, who walloped Los Angeles 12-2.

The Phillies, behind Robin Rob-Milwaukee Braves 3-2 and Pittsburgh nipped Cincinnati 4-3 on R. C. Stevens' ninth-inning home run.

Musial hit his first homer—third of the season—in the first inning with a man on base. That gave the Redbirds a 2-0 lead. With the Cards leading 4-3, he smashed a 3-0 pitch with one on in the fifth to launch a four-run rally that led to his team's first victory.

A crowd of 47,234 sweltered in the sun-baked Los Angeles Coliseum as the Giants blasted three pitches for 15 hits including three home runs over the convenient 42-foot left field wall. Danny O'Connell hit two and Daryl Spencer hit one. Carl Furillo walloped one for Los Angeles to raise the total of homers to 12 in the three-game series. The crowd brought the three-day attendance total to 167,209.

Ramon Montant, who was beaten by Los Angeles at San Francisco, won all the way and hurled an eight-hitter. Don Drysdale suffered his second loss to the Giants.

Roberts, who was knocked out in his first start after pitching five scoreless innings, went all the way this time for his first victory. He helped his cause with three of Philadelphia's seven hits and scored the winning run in the seventh. Both Milwaukee runs came on homers. They were hit by Henry Aaron and Harry Hanebrink, in the seventh.

Suggs Now Leads Women Golfers

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—The women's golf brigade moved on to Dallas today with Louise Suggs, the sweet swinger from Georgia, first winner of the spring tour.

Miss Suggs shot a 5-under-par 69 Sunday to overtake Marlene Bauer Haggie of Delray Beach, Fla., and to grab top money in the $5,000 Babe Zaharias Open. She had to come from four strokes behind to turn the trick but her 214 for the 54 holes was a stroke better than Mrs. Haggie, who took a 74 on her closing round.

The tour next plays in the $7,500 Dallas Women's Open, a 72-hole event, starting Thursday.

Jewel's Reward Now in Louisville

LOUISVILLE (AP)—Jewel's Reward, the East's main hope for the Kentucky Derby, arrived in Louisville today to join Silky Sullivan and Tim Tam, co-favorites for the May 3 turf classic.

Trainer Ivan Parke, who already has tasted victory in the great American thoroughbred race, loaded Jewel's Reward and two other Maine Chance Farm derby colts onto a horse pullman Sunday at Belmont Park for the train ride to Derbytown.

The others were Jet's Alibi, a son of Jet Pilot who won the 1957 Derby for Mrs. Elizabeth N. Graham's Maine Chance Farm, and Ebony Pearl, who finished out of the money Saturday when Jewel's Reward won the $50,500 Wood Memorial at Jamaica.

Softball Heads Set Meeting Tonight

League officials and team representatives of the Circleville Softball loop will hold a meeting tonight in the local Masonic Temple. The meet is scheduled to start at 7:30 p. m.

Officials of the loop will discuss team entries and rules and regulation governing this year's play. If the entry list is completed tonight, a season schedule also will be discussed.

Action is slated to start here May 13.

Canadiens Capture Stanley Cup Again

BOSTON (AP)—The mighty Montreal Canadiens returned home with hockey's coveted Stanley Cup for the third straight year today after a championship series with Boston's Bruins.

The Canadiens triggered a pair of goals in the first two minutes and held on for a 5-3 triumph and the championship Sunday night in the sixth game of the best-of-seven competition.

The two goal margin in the windup was the same by which Montreal outscored underdog Boston—16-14—in the series.

Tigers Sweep Doubleheader With Athens, 6-5 and 5-0

Circleville's baseball nine continued its winning ways by posting 6-5 and 5-0 doubleheader wins over Athens Saturday at Ted Lewis Park.

The 5-0 decision was the result of a sizzling no-hitter pitched by Joe Adkins. The junior hurler baffled the Athens swatters throughout the five inning contest with an assortment of fastballs and curves.

In the first game, pitcher Don Rowland was touched for seven hits but he managed to bear down in the pinches.

Circleville, meanwhile, collected five hits but used them to good advantage. The Tigers also pounded out five bingles to back Adkins in the no-hit job.

FIRST baseman Bill Purcell went 2-2 in the first game and 1-1 in the second to give him a perfect day at the plate. Mike Hosier, playing second base, had three for six and big rightfielder-catcher Harry Strawser cracked a triple.

Purcell's keen batting eye also gave him three runs batted in. Hosier contributed two RBI's.

In the first game Circleville exploded for three runs in the second inning but Athens came back for two in the third and three in the fourth. The Tigers rallied in their half of the fourth for two tallies to deadlock the count.

The fifth frame was scoreless for both teams but Circleville pushed home a tally in the sixth to ice the game.

In the second game the Tigers started fast, getting two runs in the first. Three more runners came home in the third and the final marker was racked up in the fourth.

Circleville's record now stands at 7-2 for the season. The CHS nine hosts Greenfield here tomorrow and travels to Franklin Heights on Friday. Both tests are league meetings.

The 22-year-old heavyweight contender from Miami Beach takes on England's Joe Bygraves at Leicester in a 10-rounder. He shouldn't have much difficulty with his 26-year-old foe.

Harriers Meet Washington CH

Tigers Seeking Fifth Straight Win

Circleville's powerful track team goes after its fifth straight win today at Washington C. H.

To date the flashy Tigers have run, leaped and tossed their way to wins over Logan, Franklin Heights, Chillicothe-Greenfield (triangular meet) and Lancaster.

A win today would give the locals a perfect 2-0 South Central Ohio League mark, the other victim being Franklin Heights.

Today's outcome will depend in great measure on the performances of speedster Junior Denny and distance man Bill Johnson. So far the two cindermen have captured about all events they have entered.

THE TIGERS also have proven to be top contenders in the mile and 880-yard relays. Larry Hannans makes the locals a real threat in the 120-yard high hurdles.

Coach John Current, filling in for Coach Tom Bennett who is recuperating from an appendectomy, will be without the services of pole vaulter Walt Arledge who fractured his left arm in the Lancaster meet.

AAU Boxing Failing To Draw Backing

BOSTON (AP)—The National AAU boxing championships, once one of sport's top attractions, soon may go begging unless a sponsor is found.

AAU officials shook their heads today as they studied the financial report of this year's 70th tournament at the Boston Garden.

The totals for the two-day tournament: 2,522 gross receipts $6,305.50, net receipts $3,754.

"I don't know what's going to happen," said New England AAU President Tam Sheehan, a veteran of nearly half century in amateur boxing. "I work three months on this thing and all I get out of it is spavined feet. I guess they can have it."

Boston has been the host city for the nationals for 62 of the tournaments. Once tickets were difficult to get. Now it is hard to give them away.

Despite the financial loss, the national amateurs still are a big stepping stone for many young fighters whether or not they decide to make pro boxing a career.

One such fighter in Vince Shomo, a New York schoolboy, who was awarded outstanding performer honors for the second year.

"I still want to become a doctor and don't have any intentions of fighting pro right now," 17-year-old Vince said after retaining his 139-pound title with three knock-outs and a decision.

Baseball Drawing Scheduled Tonight

Circleville High School baseball coaches Dick Boyd and Dick Fisher travel to Columbus tonight for the Central District Class AA tournament drawings.

The drawings by coaches will be held at Willard's restaurant. The tourney slated to start next Monday.

Los Angeles Park Tagged As New Home Run Heaven

By JACK HAND

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Let's face it. The Los Angeles Coliseum with its 250-foot left field foul line looks like the new home run heaven of baseball. But it is going to be a nice gold-paved heaven.

In three games at the sun-baked concrete bowl, the San Francisco Giants hit seven home runs, the Los Angeles Dodgers five. That adds up to 12, an average of four a game. And these two clubs hardly represent the power of the National League.

If they average four a game at the converted football stadium, the final total for a season would be a shocking 308. The major league record is 219 at Cincinnati last season.

Now, they may not keep up this early pace. But why not? Wait until some of the big right-handed hitters like Ernie Banks, Frank Thomas and Hank Aaron get a look at that friendly 42-foot fence. "Somebody may break Babe Ruth's record (60)," said Danny O'Connell of the Giants who hit two into O'Malley land Sunday. "I hope it isn't me," joked Danny who has hit only 33 homers in six years in the majors.

Hank Sauer, 39, kicked up his heels and belted three into the seats in the series. Old Hankus fet so young he even beat out an infield hit.

Spices, Herbs and Wines Topic By David Craven

Mr. David Craven, a superb cook and authority on the uses of spices, herbs and wines, addressed the Gourmet Study Group of the American Assn. of University Women, when it met in the home of Mrs. Harold Clifton, 307 South Court Street.

Mr. Craven has lived in many countries, and various states and has eaten and prepared favorite foods familiar to each.

He traced the use of the better known spices from the beginning of written history to our present day use. In the beginning some were used as preservatives, particularly pepper. The pepper family is varied in color as well as use. Cinnamon is almost as important and may be used in stick form as well as ground.

With emphasis on the unusual rather than the ordinary in present day cooking many spices are finding their way to our cupboard. Majoram, oregano, and curry powder, which is a blend of many things, are examples.

The rule for the use of wines in cooking is simple, serve a white wine with white meat, a red wine with dark meat, the exception being pork which does not require a wine.

Mr. Craven stated that there is no measurement or rule for the use of spices as we do not use them to flavor only to enhance the existing flavor of the dish being prepared.

He shared some of his culinary secrets with his listeners and gave them one of his favorite recipes for preparing chicken, one that is still good even if the guests are an hour late.

Refreshments were served to the members. Mrs. Craven, and the speaker, by the hostess.

Smart Girl Never Attempts To Change Man, Actor Says

By VIVIAN BROWN

TUCSON, Ariz. (U)—If your man adores wide open spaces, don't try to wean him away. It won't work anyway. It's better that you learn to like his green pastures, says singer and movie actor Guy Mitchell, an outdoor man, and proud owner of a 17,000-acre ranch near here.

"An easy way to lose a man," he says, "is to insist he give up a life he loves. Even if you are shy about sports, riding a horse, for instance, try to learn anyway. Admit you are a beginner, let your boy take the lead rope, and he'll feel like a knight."

It's a good idea, though, not to take lessons from a boy you like. "You'll think every valid criticism is a personal affront," says Mitchell, who found out by trying to teach his own wife.

On the other hand, don't try to impress your friend, if you are a neophyte, by asking for a spirited horse at the riding stables. He'll know the difference, and you'll just be miserable riding over your head.

"The first-time rider would do well not to ride a horse from public stables," he says. "It's better to ride a horse that a friend owns, or one at a dude ranch. Don't hesitate to be ladylike, asking for the mounting block etc."

Every guy pictures himself as adventurous, says Mitchell, and women shouldn't go along with the idea to help prove he is a hero.

"So you don't like moose hunting, and he does," says Mitchell. "Stay in camp and read a book, while your man is out bagging a record moose. He'll have to talk it over with someone when he gets back to camp, and he'd rather it was you."

Your job is to look pretty, he says. No man objects to a girl dressing like a big game hunter, even if she can't hit the side of a barn.

"If she's a good sport, you can like her, and you can't always say that about the girl you love, if she is difficult. My wife always looks charming on the ranch, in her frontier pants and chieftan shirts. She goes along with my plans, no matter what."

Mitchell was pretty low financially when he proposed, and explained that he might be forced to go back to cowboy work. But she took that with easy grace, and they were married, anyway.

His fortunes looked up, he bought the ranch from his friend, Audie Murphy, and now plans to make it another boys town.

"I'm going to take boys from underprivileged homes, boys recommended by welfare workers and first-time delinquents. I'll take a few incorrigible no-gooders, too," says Mitchell, "just to see what'll happen when a boy gets away from it all. The worst kid in the air. Most kids who act bad are just good actors."

Roy Sievers Is Big Pain To Red Sox

Washington Star Hits Homer To Dump Boston Third Time

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
No wonder the Boston Red Sox have been trying to lure Roy Sievers from Washington during the past few years. The guy simply murders 'em.

Sievers was at it again Sunday as Washington made it three straight over the Red Sox with a 6-5 triumph. The big outfielder walloped a 10th-inning home run.

The victory moved the Senators into a second-place tie with Kansas City, which also won its third game in five starts, defeating the Chicago White Sox 8-2. The league-leading New York Yankees made it five victories in six starts when Bob Turley hurled a 7-0 shutout over the Baltimore Orioles. Cleveland hit four home runs to edge out Detroit 4-2.

In the National League, St. Louis thrashed Chicago 9-4. A ninth-inning home run by rookie first baseman R. C. Stevens broke a tie and gave Pittsburgh a 4-3 victory over Cincinnati. Robin Roberts hurled a five-hitter as Philadelphia nipped Milwaukee 3-2. The San Francisco Giants blasted three home runs to overcome the Los Angeles Dodgers 12-2.

In addition to his game-winning homer, Sievers collected a double and triple. The 31-year-old slugger had only a single in the season's opener against the Red Sox but it drove in the tying run. In Saturday's victory over Boston, he again tied the score with a ninth-inning home run.

Five-hit pitching by Jack Urban and three-run homers by Bill Tuttle and Billy Hunter featured Kansas City's victory over Chicago. The homers were hit off Bill Fischer, who had gone 100 2-3 innings without giving up a four-bagger.

All runs in Cleveland's victory over Detroit were scored on homers. Roger Maris, Rocky Colavito, Minnie Minoso and Dick Brown hit them for Cleveland and Ray Boone's second of the season accounted for both Tiger runs.

The National League's best and worst streaks ended Sunday. The man responsible? Stan Musial. Who else?

Having seen his St. Louis mates drop their first four games this season—all to the Chicago Cubs—Stan the Man finally decided to take matters into his own hands. He smashed two home runs and drove in four runs to lead the Cardinals to a 9-4 victory over previously unbeaten Chicago.

The Cubs' league lead was cut to half a game by the San Francisco Giants, who walloped Los Angeles 12-2.

The Phillies, behind Robin Rob-Milwaukee Braves 3-2 and Pittsburgh nipped Cincinnati 4-3 on R. C. Stevens' ninth-inning home run.

Musial hit his first homer—third of the season—in the first inning with a man on base. That gave the Redbirds a 2-0 lead. With the Cards leading 4-3, he smashed a 3-0 pitch with one on in the fifth to launch a four-run rally that led to his team's first victory.

A crowd of 47,234 sweltered in the sun-baked Los Angeles Coliseum as the Giants blasted three pitches for 15 hits including three home runs over the convenient 42-foot left field wall. Danny O'Connell hit two and Daryl Spencer hit one. Carl Furillo walloped one for Los Angeles to raise the total of homers to 12 in the three-game series. The crowd brought the three-day attendance total to 167,209.

Ramon Monzant, who was beaten by Los Angeles at San Francisco, went all the way and hurled an eight-hitter. Don Drysdale suffered his second loss to the Giants.

Roberts, who was knocked out in his first start after pitching five scoreless innings, went all the way this time for his first victory. He helped his cause with three of Philadelphia's seven hits and scored the winning run in the seventh. Both Milwaukee runs came on homers. They were hit by Henry Aaron and Harry Hanebrink, in the seventh.

Suggs Now Leads Women Golfers

BEAUMONT, Tex. (AP)—The women's golf brigade moved on to Dallas today with Louise Suggs, the sweet swinger from Georgia, first winner of the spring tour.

Miss Suggs shot a 5-under-par 69 Sunday to overtake Marlene Bauer Hagge of Delray Beach, Fla., and to grab top money in the $5,000 Babe Zaharias Open. She had to come from four strokes behind to turn the trick but her 214 for the 54 holes was a stroke better than Mrs. Hagge, who took a 74 on her closing round.

The four next plays in the $7,500 Dallas Women's Open, a 72-hole event, starting Thursday.

Tigers Sweep Doubleheader With Athens, 6-5 and 5-0

Circleville's baseball nine continued its winning ways by posting 6-5 and 5-0 doubleheader wins over Athens Saturday at Ted Lewis Park.

The 5-0 decision was the result of a sizzling no-hitter pitched by Joe Adkins. The junior hurler baffled the Athens swatters throughout the five-unting contest with an assortment of fastballs and curves.

In the first game, pitcher Don Rowland was touched for seven hits but he managed to bear down in the pinches.

Circleville, meanwhile, collected five hits but used them to good advantage. The Tigers also pounded out five bingles to back Adkins in the no-hit job.

FIRST baseman Bill Purcell went 2-2 in the first game and 1-1 in the second to give him a perfect day at the plate. Mike Hosler, playing second base, had three for six and big rightfielder-catcher Harry Strawser cracked a triple.

Purcell's keen batting eye also gave him three runs batted in. Hosler contributed two RBI's.

In the first game Circleville exploded for three runs in the second inning but Athens came back for two in the third and three in the fourth. The Tigers rallied in their half of the fourth for two tallies to deadlock the count.

The fifth frame was scoreless for both teams but Circleville pushed home a tally in the sixth to ice the game.

In the second game the Tigers started fast, getting two runs in the first. Three more runners came home in the third and the final marker was racked up in the fourth.

Circleville's record now stands at 7-2 for the season. The CHS nine hosts Greenfield here tomorrow and travels to Franklin Heights on Friday. Both tests are league meetings.

County Nines Open Tourney

The Pickaway County Baseball Tournament begins today with four games scheduled.

Eight teams are slated to participate with the winner and runner-up eligible to enter the state tournament. All games start at 3:30 p.m.

Walnut hosts Atlanta and Darby travels to Pickaway today. Ashville goes to Jackson and Williamsport entertains Scioto.

Semifinals are scheduled for Thursday. If weather interferes today, the games will be played on the next fair day.

Pastrano Slated For London Match

NEW YORK (AP)—Willie Pastrano, barred from a title fight by Heavyweight Champion Floyd Patterson's manager, fights in England tonight for the third time in six months.

The 22-year-old heavyweight contender from Miami Beach takes on England's Joe Bygraves at Leicester in a 10-rounder. He shouldn't have much difficulty with his 26-year-old foe.

Pastrano, in two fights in London, beat Dick Richardson by a big margin Oct. 22 and edged Brian London Feb. 25.

Harriers Meet Washington CH

Tigers Seeking Fifth Straight Win

Circleville's powerful track team goes after its fifth straight win today at Washington C. H.

To date the flashy Tigers have run, leaped and tossed their way to wins over Logan, Franklin Heights, Chillicothe-Greenfield (triangular meet) and Lancaster.

A win today would give the locals a perfect 2-0 South Central Ohio League mark, the other victim being Franklin Heights.

Today's outcome will depend in great measure on the performances of speedster Junior Denny and distance man Bill Johnson. So far the two cindermen have captured about all events they have entered.

THE TIGERS also have proven to be top contenders in the mile and 880-yard relays. Larry Hannahs makes the locals a real threat in the 120-yard high hurdles.

Coach John Current, filling in for Coach Tom Bennett who is recuperating from an appendectomy, will be without the services of pole vaulter Walt Arledge who fractured his left arm in the Lancaster meet.

AAU Boxing Failing To Draw Backing

BOSTON (AP)—The National AAU boxing championships, once one of sport's top attractions, soon may go begging unless a sponsor is found.

AAU officials shook their heads today as they studied the financial report of this year's 70th tournament at the Boston Garden.

The totals for the two-day tournament: 2,522, gross receipts $6,305.50, net receipts $3,754.

"I don't know what's going to happen," said New England AAU President Tam Sheehan, a veteran of nearly half century in amateur boxing. "I work three months on this thing and all I get out of it is spavined feet. I guess they can have it."

Boston has been the host city for the nationals for 62 of the tournaments. Once tickets were difficult to get. Now it is hard to give them away.

Despite the financial loss, the national amateurs still are a big stepping stone for many young fighters whether or not they decide to make pro boxing a career.

One such fighter in Vince Shomo, a New York schoolboy, who was awarded outstanding performer honors for the second year.

"I still want to become a doctor and don't have any intentions of fighting pro right now," 17-year-old Vince said after retaining his 139-pound title with three knock-outs and a decision.

Baseball Drawing Scheduled Tonight

Circleville High School baseball Coaches Dick Boyd and Dick Fisher travel to Columbus tonight for the Central District Class AA tournament drawings.

The drawings by coaches will be held at Willard's restaurant. The tournament is slated to start next Monday.

Los Angeles Park Tagged As New Home Run Heaven

By JACK HAND
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Let's face it. The Los Angeles Coliseum with its 250-foot left field foul line looks like the new home run heaven of baseball. But it is going to be a nice gold-paved heaven.

In three games at the sun-baked concrete bowl, the San Francisco Giants hit seven home runs, the Los Angeles Dodgers five. That adds up to 12, an average of four a game. And these two clubs hardly represent the power of the National League.

If they average four a game at the converted football stadium, the final total for a season would be a shocking 308. The major league record is 219 at Cincinnati last season.

Now, they may not keep up this early pace. But why not? Wait until some of the big right-handed hitters like Ernie Banks, Frank Thomas and Hank Aaron get a look at that friendly 42-foot fence.

"Somebody may break Babe Ruth's record (60)," said Danny O'Connell of the Giants who hit two into O'Malley land Sunday.

"I hope it isn't me," joked Danny who has hit only 33 homers in six years in the majors.

Hank Sauer, 39, kicked up his heels and belted three into the seats in the series. Old Hankus fet so young he even beat out an infield hit.

"I'm going to leave you here," joked Giant Manager Billy Rigney with Sauer. "We'll see you when we come back next time."

Rigney is a realist. After beating the Dodgers four out of the first six games, including a 12-2 romp Sunday and an 11-4 rout Saturday, he can't quarrel with the fence.

That is all fine and good for Rigney. How about those left behind — the Dodgers?

The Dodger staff was raked for 42 hits in the three games. Carl Erskine won the home opener with a 12-hitter but five paraded Saturday and four more Sunday.

Left-handers are doomed to many rugged nights and days in this park.

"The best part of my staff is left-handed," said Manager Walter Alston. "They are going to have to pitch here and win."

On the other hand, the left-handed batters will have to swing from their heels to clear the right field wall. Although it is only 300 right down the foul line it quickly drops out to 425 where it is protected by an eight-foot fence. Nobody has cleared it so far.

All of which prompted this comment from left-handed Duke Snider, the Dodgers' home run king with 40 or more in each of the last five years.

"Every time I hit a ball 380 feet, I want to cry."

Artistically, the park may have its shortcomings. But financially it looks like another gold rush. They drew successive crowds of 78,672 (largest in National League history), 41,303 and 47,234. That added up to 167,209.

Indians Lose Services of Top Catcher

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Cleveland Indians will be without the services of Russ Nixon, their first line catcher, when they open a two-game series with the Kansas City Athletics tonight.

A stiff back forced Nixon to the sidelines in the first inning of the game with the Tigers in Detroit Sunday. Trainer Wally Bock said he probably would be out of the lineup a day or two.

Jim (Mudcat) Grant, the only Tribe pitcher to beat the Athletics in a three-game series at Cleveland last week, will be striving to make it two in a row over the A's in the series opener here. He defeated them in his major league debut last Thursday.

Grant will be opposed by young Ralph Terry, who beat the Indians in the second game of the season last Wednesday.

The Indians defeated the Detroit Tigers 4-2 Sunday in the windup of a three-game series, which the Tribe won, two games to one.

The Indians' runs were scored on home runs by Roger Maris, Rocky Colavito, Minnie Miñoso and Dick Brown, who replaced Nixon behind the plate.

Right-hander Ray Narleski, who was knocked out of the box in the first inning by the Athletics last Wednesday, allowed the Tigers only six hits in winning his first game, but he required ninth-inning help from Herb Score. The ace southpaw retired the last two batters with two runners on base.

Big Rookie Is Nemesis Of Redlegs

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Right-hander Willard Schmidt used to say the way to pitch to a hitter like Stan Musial is "throw it over and duck." A big rookie first-sacker named R. C. Stevens gave Schmidt the same kind of trouble Sunday.

Stevens spoiled the veteran hurler's first 1958 relief performance, stepping into a 3-2 pitch in the ninth inning and belting it over the left field fence. If gave Pittsburgh's Pirates a 4-3 victory over Cincinnati's Redlegs.

Schmidt had said earlier he was learning finesse. He said, "I used to rear back and let 'er go when I got in a jam. When the hitters got to a 3-1 count, they'd know the next pitch would be my fast ball. Now I think I've learned to pace myself."

After the game, he said the payoff pitch was a curve.

Schmidt, acquired from the St. Louis Cardinals in a midwinter trade, had squelched an eighth-inning rally after taking over for Redleg starter Joe Nuxhall.

And the 28-year-old reliever started the last inning in strong form, getting the first man to fly out and the second a foul out.

Then came Stevens.

The Reds had twice climbed from behind. They had sprayed 11 hits around Forbes field, but left 11 men stranded. Bob Friend was the winning pitcher.

The Redlegs moved on to Philadelphia immediately after the game. A single game is scheduled tonight with the Phillies.

5 Elderly Women Drown

Driverless Auto Plunges into Lake

NEWTON, Mass. (AP) — Five women residents of a nursing home—the youngest 80, the oldest 96 — were trapped and drowned in a driverless automobile Sunday when the car slipped its brakes, rolled down a grade and into a lake.

William L. Bruce, 34, an assistant dean at Harvard Law School, dived after the car but could not open its doors because of water pressure. He said the women inside "looked terrified — numb with fear."

He said that for five minutes, as the air-filled car slowly settled into the water, the women fought desperately to escape and stared through the closed windows in horror as four men tried to free them.

One of the victims was Mrs. Ina Dowling, 85, who precipitated a Miami court scandal in 1954. Her accusations that a Florida court two-million-dollar estate led to grand jury inquiries into court officers' conduct and to the impeachment of a judge, later acquitted.

The others were identified as Mrs. Gertrude Cummings, 85; Mrs. Hattie Gordon, 96; Mrs. Esther Ross, 92; and Mrs. Dorthilda Hinrichs, 80.

"The women were frozen with fear," Bruce said. "One woman had her face pressed against the back seat of the car — blocking out the sight of the rising water."

Mrs. Kenneth Watson, 58, owner of the nursing home, said she was about to drive the five women on a ride into the country when the accident occurred at 3:40 p.m. The car belonged to Mrs. Dowling.

Police quoted Mrs. Watson as saying: "I had just helped the women into the car and was going back into the house after a coat. I shut the door on the driver's side and left the motor running and the brakes on."

Mrs. Watson said that as she walked away the car lurched forward and moved down the driveway. She ran after it but couldn't get near it.

Police guessed that one of the women may accidentally have shifted the automatic transmission lever into drive position.

The car knocked down a 3-inch flagpole, plunged 30 feet down an embankment, rolled further and took another 30-foot dip into Crystal Lake. It settled in 12 feet of water, three car lengths from shore.

Car Destroyed By Flames

Two southern Ohio men lost some clothing and a 1949 Buick at 9:28 p. m. Saturday when the auto was destroyed by fire.

Harrison Twp. Fire Department was called to fight the blaze which happened a mile south of South Bloomfield on Route 23. The auto was owned by the United Cement Contractors and Sons.

Driving the car was Robert Ratcliff, 21, Portsmouth. Elisha J. Watts, 22, Wellston was a passenger. They were en route to their homes from work in Marion.

Ratcliff said he smelled smoke coming from under the rear seat during the trip from Marion, but fire didn't break out until just south of South Bloomfield.

Youths Vote Against Ohio Death Penalty

COLUMBUS (AP)—If a legislature which met here this weekend had been the real one, instead of one sponsored by the YMCA, the death sentence would no longer exist in Ohio. Also illegal would be hitchhiking and scholarships for needy students.

The model legislature, arranged by the YMCA to show 445 Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y teen-agers how Ohio's government works, abolished capital punishment and replaced it with life imprisonment.

It also approved mandatory inspection of rest homes, compulsory anti-rabies inoculations for dogs and 11 other bills.

Two measures, including a compulsory civil defense bill which he said conflicted with federal planning and made no provision for costs, were vetoed by Hi-Y Gov. Stephen Beckeler of Middletown.

Also killed was a so-called right-to-work bill. The young lawmakers instead adopted a joint resolution calling for a referendum on the proposal, which would outlaw union shops.

And education came in for a going-over from the young people. They voted down scholarships for needy students, aid for furthering teachers' education, financial support for scholastic athletic programs, mandatory driver education, and uniform pay scales for teachers with cost-of-living raises.

Carolina Senate Appointee Rapped

RALEIGH, N. C. (AP)—Two friends of the late Sen. W. Kerr Scott (D-NC) have spoken out bitterly against the man chosen by Gov. Luther Hodges to take Scott's place in the Senate.

B. Everett Jordan, a Saxapahaw textile manufacturer and at one time a Scott political associate, received the appointment Saturday. Scott died last Wednesday.

The Jordan selection brought a strong attack from Terry Sanford of Fayetteville and Ben Roney, Scott's assistant.

Both Sanford and Roney suggested that Hodges had named Jordan to hold the Senate seat only until 1960, when Hodges' term as governor will expire.

Famed Rescue Pilot Is Killed in Glider

ADELANTO, Calif. (AP)—Bob Symons, 48, one of the nation's best known and most daring rescue pilots, was killed Saturday in a glider accident. Symons' most recent publicized exploit was rescuing four stranded Stanford University students from an 11,700 foot ledge in the Sierra above Yosemite National Park.

Ohio Escapees Still at Large

NORFOLK, Va. (AP)—Two Ohio escapees still are believed holed up somewhere in this city.

Summit County, Ohio, officers are expected soon to pick up a third escapee from the jail, Jack Raymond Adey, 23, who was captured Friday.

Still at large are Frank Spence, 28, and Richard Hoskinson, 23. They were believed to have fled the Norfolk area until a man tentatively identified as Spence raided a home Saturday night.

Malcolm H. Allen, 65, was held prisoner for 90 minutes before the intruder escaped in stolen clothing. Allan, shown a picture of Spence, told police it resembled his assailant.

Gang Effort Is Urged by Non-Smokers

LONDON (AP)—Quitting smoking? It's easier as a gang enterprise than it is for one unhappy man trying on his own, insists Britain's National Society of Non-smokers.

The organization is inviting the addicts to make a big heave-ho together, lean on each other, and exchange strength when the flesh weakens.

The technique resembles that of Alcoholics Anonymous.

A country wide campaign will start in London next month.

Hub Cap Thefts Are Reported in Ashville

The society has no magic method. It relies on will power.

"But it does seem to be easier when men and women make the great effort together, giving each other morale and pepping up the feeble," said the Rev. Hubert V. Little, a Baptist clergyman who is secretary of the society.

"Our method is to give pep talks, encourage social contacts among folks with a common weakness and arrange interviews with physicians who have volunteered their services."

The society has opened a clinic in Liverpool, where Dr. Lennox Johnston, the organization's president, tells a smoker:
